

Isaiah 1:1-8 + 2:2-3

This passage gives us an indication of what Abram experienced in his Horror of Great Darkness. He saw himself in the same way God said he saw rebellious Israel:

Isaiah 1:6-7 - "From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers."

Seeing yourself as God sees you is the necessary entryway to repentance and redemption.

The words of comfort in Isaiah 2:2-3 show the fulfillment of God's promise that Abram's seed would bless the nations/peoples of the earth:

Isaiah 2:2 - "And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it."

Isaiah 2:3 - "And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem."
